Snapshot Overview

Costa Rica is Noah's Ark for the 21st century and one of the most biologically intense places on earth. It's dominated by coastlines, where the loudest sounds come from the local active volcano and where the most important meetings are held by Howler monkeys and blue crowned motmots. The country is an oasis where putting your head under a waterfall or wiggling your toes in the white sand beaches constitutes a significant commitment. It's a place where rush hour is a river raft passing through jungle flora and fauna and where your most pressing deadline is catching the sunset just so.

For years, Costa Rica was the well-kept secret of a few biologists, backpackers and beachcombers, but that's all changed. The secret is out. Today Costa Rica is one of the hottest destinations in Latin America. The country is a major vacation and adventure-travel destination, and tourism has become the nation's number-one source of income. Despite the boom in vacationers, Costa Rica still remains a place rich in natural wonders and biodiversity, far from the maddening crowds. Here you can still find unsullied beaches that stretch for miles, small lodgings that haven't attracted hordes of tourists, jungle rivers for rafting and kayaking, and spectacular cloud and rainforests with ample opportunities for bird-watching and hiking. And, here is the best part for all of you travelers in search of adventure luxury – in addition to the country's trademark eco and adventure lodge offerings, the recent years have brought several spectacular luxury resorts and “green” accommodations, and we're checking in to the best of them!

On this TBE expedition: listen to nature's “music” chattering and chirping from within the heart of the abundant jungles... get lost above the cloud forests and deep within the rain forests in search of Howler monkeys, sloths, rabbit-sized spoonbills and a myriad of insects under the watchful eye of an experienced naturalist guide... submerge yourself in the bubbling mineral waters and natural thermal hot springs of Tabacón... witness the active Volcán Arenal spit fiery orange flames in the near distance.... relax in the sand or poolside at your own luxury beach villa at Herradura Bay or nearby Jaco Beach. Along the way, we'll stay in amazing jungle lodges, sophisticated eco resorts and luxurious beach villas, and taste regional specialties like gallo pinto and some of the freshest food you'll ever wrap your lips around. Pack your bathing suit, hiking boots and join us at one of the best “Pura Vida” destinations on earth.

And, as an optional pre-extension... grab an oar and hold on for an exhilarating adventure to manhandle the white water rapids of the Pacuare River... fall asleep in a thatched roofed bungalow to the sounds of the deep jungle... hike along a myriad of trails to waterfalls and pools to keep yourself cool and wet.

Columbus wasn't alone in his irrepressible passion for lovely Costa Rica. We, too, have fallen for her natural beauty, her warm people, her jungles full of exotic wildlife. Our guess is that you will, too. Come and find out for yourself. Join us on a journey through Central America's most seductive country. Welcome to Costa Rica – TBE style!

This LAND ONLY luxury/adventure expedition is based on a minimum of 24 passengers (max 40), dbl occ. RESERVATIONS ARE FIRST COME-FIRST SERVED and accepted immediately with a completed registration form along with a $500 pp deposit ($250 pp is refundable if cancelled prior to final payment; otherwise 100% nonrefundable). Final payment is due JANUARY 15, 2011! Please refer to itinerary details, inclusions and exclusions and fine print condition terms listed below. A VALID PASSPORT is required.

For flights, use your flyer miles between the USA and San Jose, Costa Rica, or join the group on a special-priced group fare of approximately $600 pp on TACA Airlines from San Francisco.

TACA is part of Star Alliance, so United Airlines frequent flyer miles are earned for the entire journey. Other US gateways and airlines are also available for similar fares. Call for assistance!

Selected Accommodations

MARRIOTT HOTEL – San Jose (On arrival – April 5, for rafters pre-extending, and April 7 for non-rafters)
www.marriott.com/hotels/travel/sjocr-costa-rica-marriott-hotel-san-jose

Voted by Condé Nast as one of the best hotels in Central America and set on a 30-acre coffee plantation, this luxurious colonial hacienda-style hotel features unique architecture, captivating grounds, exceptional service and a relaxing ambiance. Colonial-style rooms offer antique-reproduction furniture, Juliet balconies, Marriott's Revive Collection bedding, TV and minibars. TBE guests also receive complimentary high speed internet access and access to the executive lounge where morning, afternoon and evening snacks are served along with alcoholic beverages. Experience fine dining, exquisite tapas and wines at La Isabela, swim in one of two outdoor pools, sip coffee at their roasting café, or pamper yourself at the coffee-inspired spa.

EL SILENCIO ECO LODGE & SPA – Bajos del Toro (April 8 & 9)
www.elsilenciolodge.com

In the country that practically invented ecotourism, El Silencio sets a new standard for responsible luxury. The 15 khaki-colored cottages are built of environmentally friendly materials such as bamboo tiles, with lamp bases and towel racks fashioned from logs and twigs. All cottages are furnished with a king-size bed, two plush sofas that can double as extra sleeping nooks, and a gas fireplace to cut the morning chill. They are plenty roomy, but the biggest draw is beyond the sliding glass doors. As you watch the late-afternoon mist slide over the lushly forested mountains from your cottage's rail-less porch, you'll know why this is called the cloud forest. The largely local staff are ever present and will accompany you on your included guided walk through the adjacent 500-acre reserve to several waterfalls (some gushers and others trickles). Perhaps you'll want to practice yoga on the open-air platform at the spa. Chef Marco González's

Costa Rican–fusion food is among the best in the country, sourced from the resort's own organic garden and nearby purveyors of produce and naturally-raised chicken and fish. All gourmet meals are included!

NOTE: There are only 15 cottages at El Silencio (max 30 passengers, dbl occ). However, the nearby Bosque de Paz Resort & Biological Reserve (www.bosquedepaz.com) can host up to 10 more passengers. Guests opting to stay at the less luxurious, but equally eco and green Bosque de Paz will receive a $125 pp credit. Groups (from both lodges) will participate in the included and optional activities together.

TABACÓN SPRINGS RESORT & SPA – Arenal Volcano/La Fortuna (April 10 & 11). www.tabacon.com.

This award-winning 114-room resort (a member of the Leading Hotels of the World) next to Volcán Arenal has natural hot springs of steaming water that are channeled into numerous private pools and springs tailor-made for romantic moments. There are also several waterfalls where you can get an all-natural massage; if that's too exposed, there's an on-site Grand Spa hidden among tropical flowers where you can arrange an alfresco rubdown. There's the requisite swim-up bar in the main pool, but El Palenque (in a secluded corner of the lush gardens) is a less crowded watering hole and all the better for it. The views of Volcán Arenal are spectacular, especially since the volcano blows its top unpredictably, but nightly. Tabacón is perfect for those seeking serious R&R. The rooms are luxurious with some of the dark-wood furnishings made by local craftspeople.

LOS SUEÑOS LUXURY VILLAS – Herradura Bay

(April 12, 13, 14, & 15). www.lsrn.com

These private 3-bedroom/3-bath en suite luxury villas share a common gourmet kitchen, living room, dining room, laundry room, outdoor patio and semi-private infinity pool (pictured to the left). TBE guests have privileges at the Los Sueños golf course, 200-slip marina (world class sport fishing), private Beach Club with swim-up bar, 10+ restaurants, casino, and day spa.

JUNGLE LODGE – Pacuare Rain Forest (April 6 & 7)

**PRE-EXTENSION** www.junglelodgecostarica.com

Before you can cross the suspended foot bridge to your bungalow, you must first be handy with an oar. Tucked into a private reserve near the Caribbean coast, this remote lodge is reached by rafting down a 14-mile stretch of the Class II-IV Pacuare River known for its dramatic gorges and surrounding virgin forests. The exclusive (and romantic) lodge is only accessible by raft or suspension bridge and runs without electricity (gas is used to cook, shower water is heated by solar). Gourmet meals are included, and the palm-thatched bungalows, lodge rooms and river-front suites are illuminated by candlelight.

NOTE: There are only 7 GARDEN-view bungalows available (pictured to the right) for the $549 pp pre-excursion price (first come, first served); then upgrades apply as follows: JUNGLE-View Bungalows (2 available) @ $30 pp/night surcharge; RIVER-View Bungalows (5 available) @ $60 pp/night surcharge; And the EXCLUSIVE (2450 sq ft) Linda Vista Suites (4 available) @ $150 pp/night surcharge. (*) Check out the extensive photos of all of the fabulous bungalow categories as well as the spectacular LV suites found on the Pacuare Lodge Face book Page (better than their website).
